The product of a Center-hosted conference in spring of 2012, The New Evangelical Social Engagement has just been released. Read more here.

Giving

Most of the Center's activities are funded through grants. However, some activities are only possible because of the generosity of our friends. Gifts can be made through the Indiana University Foundation. If you are thinking about year-end contributions and wish to support the Center for the Study of Religion and American Culture, your gift can be made online here.
